

Event or Activity	Report as Group Enrollment	Why	Delivery Method
Afterschool Activities, 4-H Fridays, Early Out Days	Yes	Activities done afterschool, on early release days, or on fifth day of the week. Activities are educational and/or sequential, covering a variety of topics, but youth do not complete a 4-H project.	School Aged Child Care Education Programs (4-H Afterschool)
4-H Afterschool Club	No	Children at the afterschool program are enrolled as a club. They follow club guidelines and work towards completing a 4-H project.	Organized Afterschool Club
In School Activity	Yes	Activities done during the school day, at school. Activities are educational and/or sequential, covering a variety of topics, but youth do not complete a 4-H project.	School Enrichment
In-school Club	No	If the youth are enrolled as an organized In-School 4-H club, then no group enrollment would be necessary.	Organized In-school Club
4-H O:MK	Maybe	There are a variety of O:MK activities and events. Activities that educational and/or sequential maybe entered as group enrollment. Confer with the O:MK Director to determine reporting	Will vary
Know Your Government Conference	No	Attending KYG Conference is an integral part of the KYG project. The project experience is captured through the member's project enrollment.
Teen Conference	Yes	Teen Conference is an extra activity beyond any specific project. Offers an additional experience.	Short Term, Special Interest
County Horse Bowl, Horse Judging, Horse Oral Presentations	No	Like KYG, while it's not required as part of the project, it's very closely woven as part of the project specific experience the youth are enrolled in.
District Horse Bowl, Horse Judging, Horse Oral Presentations	No	Same as for county contests
State Horse Bowl, Horse Judging, Horse Oral Presentations	No	Same as for county contests
FCS Judging Contest	Yes	Typically this contest covers numerous project areas and youth who participate are judging projects new to them. More emphasis on the skill of judging and using reason than the project itself.	Short Term, Special Interest
Camp Counselor Training	No, maybe	Camp counselors are youth enrolled in a club taking the leadership project, camp counselor emphasis. The trainings and planning meetings they attend are part of their project work. (O:MK camp counselors may not be enrolled in the Leadership project, therefore, yes.)	Overnight Camping Program

Reporting Guidelines

4-H Camps	Yes	Camp is an extra activity beyond any specific project, and is typically half 4-H members, half non 4-H members.	Overnight Camping Program
Ambassador Conference	Yes	Like Teen Conference, this is an event beyond any specific project and offers an additional leadership experience. Youth are typically enrolled in the Leadership project with Ambassador emphasis.	Overnight Camping program
Kid's Fair, Home & Garden Shows	No	These are typically marketing experiences characterized by brief interactions with youth.
Open House	No, maybe	Depends what you have planned. Open houses are typically more like a marketing event with brief interactions with youth. If a skill-a-thon or a similar activity is planned that engages youth more intensely, then maybe it can be reported.
Field Days	No, maybe	Depends what you have planned. If education is directly project specific, enhancing a project currently enrolled in, an extension of their project work, then no. If education covers a variety of project areas, building skills in other areas, then yes.	Day Camp or possibly Short Term, Special Interest
