

Dear Entrepreneur:

Thank you for your interest in attending our next course of, "Developing Your Food Product Idea: Getting Started in a Food Business". We admire your aspiration to become an entrepreneur in the food production business and your desire to learn more about the industry before you proceed. This is a one day class at a fee of $100 (per person), to include lunch and all course literature. It is the mission of our facility and staff to supply you with information necessary to make the important decisions required to succeed in this industry, along with many of the tools you need, should you choose to continue.

We want to see our clients achieve financial prosperity which is why we have designed an application process to help us better assist you. We do require tenants of the Food Technology Center to attend our course, however, course attendees are not required to become tenants of the FTC. Please fill out this application and submit your completed form, along with your $100 non-refundable fee, check made payable to: U of I Food Technology Center, to the address listed above. Once we have processed your application we will contact you with further instructions and confirmation of acceptance into the class.

Additional attendees may be considered at a later time, based on class enrollment.*

If you have any questions or concerns about the information on this form, please feel free to contact us in advance with your inquiries:

For business questions contact Jim Toomey - jtoomey@uidaho.edu

For food processing questions contact Cini Baumhoff - baumhoff@uidaho.edu

We look forward to meeting you and working with you to develop your food product idea!
