

2018 Rangeland Fall Forum

Decisions Today

Outcomes for Tomorrow

Photo courtesy of Seth McFarland

Thursday, Oct. 4th

1:00 Welcome to the Fall Forum 2018

>> Shannon Williams, University of Idaho Extension

1:15 Session 1 - Changing Lands, Changing Values: How We Got Here

- >> Moderated by John Hall, Nancy M. Cummings REEC
- Hope Benedict, Lemhi County Historical Society
 - Dave McFarland, Carmen Land & Livestock
 - JD Wulfhorst, University of Idaho

2:15 Session 2 – Restoration Decisions: Successes and...Opportunities

- >> Moderated by Toni Ruth, Salmon Valley Stewardship
- Panel Members Mary Cerise, Tom Page, and Glenn Elzinga

3:15 Break

3:30 Session 3 – Making Outcomes: Social, Economic, and Ecological

- >> Moderated by Katherine Himes, McClure Center for Public Policy Research – University of Idaho
- Chloe Wardropper and Katie Wollstein, University of Idaho
 - Linda Price, Bureau of Land Management
 - Lou Lunte, The Nature Conservancy

4:30 Considering Landscapes and Partnerships

>> Daniel Bertram, Office of Species Conservation

5:00 Social Hour

>> Silent auction hosted by Society for Range Management

6:00 Dinner (Catering by Grubbin')

6:45 SRM Awards and Announcements

>> Brian Thrift, Idaho Section SRM President

7:00 Keynote Speaker - Ranching in the New West

>> Wyatt Prescott, Prescott Cattle LLC

Friday, Oct. 5th

8:00 am Load busses at the Sacajawea Center

9:15-10:15 Big Timber

>> Economic impacts of restoration:
Merrill Beyeler and local contractors

10:30-11:00 Big Springs

>> Habitat restoration:
Breann Green & Karl Tyler

11:15-12:00 Amonson

>> Putting sinuosity back in the Lemhi River:
Merrill Beyeler

12:00-12:30 Travel to McFarland Campground

>> Lunch (provided)

12:45-1:30 Little Sawmill

>> Livestock handling facilities and fish
habitat restoration:
Matt Green, Andy and Kathleen Knight

1:45 to 2:30 Warm Springs

>> Grazing and sage-grouse:
Vince Guyer, Ross Goddard, and Bob Loucks

3:00 Arrive back at Sacajawea Center

