

2021

SAGEBRUSH SATURDAY

June 12: Birds , Birds, Birds! 9:00-11:30am

- Guided “bird walk” with Dr. Tracey Johnson
(University of Idaho, Department of Fish and Wildlife Sciences)
- Guests from the World Center for Birds of Prey!
- Learning activities for all age groups

Sagebrush Saturdays are family-friendly educational workshops designed to foster appreciation of Idaho's rangeland.

All events are free and take place at the Rinker Rock Creek Ranch Barn. Camp chairs, closed-toes shoes, long-pants and hats are recommended.

Directions and More Information:

Visit: www.uidaho.edu/research/entitles/rock-creek

Or contact, April Hulet, Range Extension Specialist
aprilh@uidaho.edu, 208-364-4073

State and county guidelines regarding covid-19 will be followed.
Masks will be required when social distancing guidelines cannot be met.

Special thanks to these sponsors:

Idaho Rangeland Resources Commission
University of Idaho's Rangeland Center

The Nature Conservancy
Wood River Land Trust

