 - Vice President of Operations

- Nomination: Virginia Monk
- Challenger(s): Sarah Lake
- Discussion: having a background in finance and having been an officer in a chapter that manages their individual budget makes a difference, the communications aspect of the position could be learned easily and mostly requires organization to complete adequately
 - Sarah: major applies to the position, focused on the position and what it entailed, less obviously excited to serve
 - Virginia: focused on the whole position, passion for PHC wants to give back and serve, may not be able to separate herself for feedback on the position
- Vote: tied ballots, moved to Q & A
- Q &A
 - Sarah: wants to improve financial transparency, being more involved in the community, further finance background with an experience based position, helping people, understands she can't always make everyone happy, accepts criticism, believes the difficult part of the position would be the finance portion, could learn setting meetings and taking notes
 - Virginia: had critiques from her internship tried not to take it personally and worked to improve herself and complete the task, brings people together and makes people feel welcomed, adaptable, has helped set budgets in past clubs/organizations, take accountability for doing something incorrectly but also willing to hold others accountable
 - Elected: Virginia Monk

 - Second Alpha Phi
 - Vote: 7/10 in favor of Virginia Monk
- Vice President of Recruitment
 - Nomination: Dylanie Frazier
 - Challenger(s): Emily Reed
 - Discussion:
 - Limited recruitment qualifications for both, formal recruitment was not necessary to complete the position well but it does give a different understanding of the process
 - Option to not vote for either and find another candidate to fill the position via appointment
 - Emily: new member from the spring, may not have the qualifications to lead the community, started formal recruitment then snapped, takes things personally, may not take criticism well

- Dylanie: did go through formal recruitment, will be on campus in January, very organized and disciplined, has ideas to utilize other campus resources to improve PHC, always tries to do the right thing and diversity, equity and inclusion are important to her
- Elected: Dylanie Frazier

 - Vote: 9/10 in favor of Dylanie Frazier

 - Second Kappa Delta
 - Vote: 10/10 in favor of Rylie Frei
- Vice President of Marketing
 - Nomination: Megan Anderson
 - Challenger(s): None
 - Discussion: major aligns with this position, ideas to improve the community where it is at, easy to work with, obvious she wants to be involved by running for rho gamma and PHC, artistic creativity, kind and open to suggestions, work well in a team setting
