

THE CNR HOUSE

College of Natural Resources
Living Learning Community

Live and learn with other students of natural resources! Join a community that shares your interests and love of the outdoors. CNR House residents often take the same courses, create study groups, attend events together and form life-long friendships.

Activities include:

- Hiking, biking and other student-initiated outdoor adventures
- Career and internship events
- Chance to meet with the CNR dean and professors
- Volunteer and community service opportunities

Enjoy amenities not found in a typical dorm:

- Large, shared kitchen area
- Ping-pong and pool tables
- Private study spaces
- Lounges and a central TV-area
- Fireplace
- Free laundry
- High-speed internet and cable included
