

University of Idaho
University Honors Program

Maximize your University Honors Program
experience by living in the Honors House.

COMMUNITY • SUCCESS

University Honors Program in the Residence Halls

University of Idaho
Housing and Residence Life

University Honors Program in the Residence Halls

Join a residential Honors Program community that supports your academic ambitions

Participate in academic enrichment opportunities! Involve yourself in regularly offered academic enrichment opportunities, such as Fireside Chats with professors, student magazine writing sessions and much more.

- Make friends! Connect with like-minded and motivated students from all academic disciplines who are all a part of the Honors Program.
- Enjoy support! Create and enjoy a community of Honors Program students who support your academic ambitions.
- Increase your academic success! Join study groups with students on your floor who are also in your Honors classes.

First Year Students:

1st and 3rd Floors

Returning and Transfer Students:

2nd and 4th Floors

Building Requirements:

To live in Honors House, students must be accepted to the University of Idaho Honors Program at the time of booking. The Honors House is open to all First Year, Returning and Transfer Students.

Visit us: uidaho.edu/housing

208-885-6571 • housing@uidaho.edu

